Lynda,

Tony is correct, the numbers in the chart provided were ARC + LRWQCB. These should be shown in the totals column. The flow #'s for the LRWQCB were slightly off that in the table provided by the LRWQCB as well. Please see the markups in the attached document for the proper subdivision.

Thanks,

Marc

Marc—URGENT review needed:

Is the final table here attached correct, or see Yolanda's comment!

Subject: RE: Leviathan Mine Timeline with ARC's treatment system numbers
Importance: High

Now that I look at it I'm concerned. It appears to me that ARC provided the total for ARC + RWQCB (see their footnote). If that's true, these numbers in the timeline are incorrect.
